

I am horrified by Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to air a partisan Kerry smear
piece only weeks
before a general election. This is a journalistic travesty and I would like to register a STRONG complain
against my Pittsburgh area affiliates, as well as Sinclair Broadcasting. The idea that this show, Stolen Honor, could be considered news,
is ridiculous. If Stolen Honor is shown, Michael Moore's movie
Fahrenheit 9-11
should be shown.
Actually I don't think either of these films should
qualify as 'news';
even the idea is
totally ridiculous.
Sinclair has crossed the line and should not be allowed to do this!
